A normal Monday

After almost four months here, we feel as if life has settled into a pattern. So we thought we'd give you the outline of a normal day. However, 'normal' never actually happens - there's always some variation!

6:40 Alarm. It's light and hot already. Pete wakes the girls with special songs for Lucy.

Breakfast of cereal, toast or grapefruit. It's a race to feed Nautilus (our turtle) and check to see if Ralphina (hummingbird) is on her nest.

7:45 Out the door - if we're late, K and L get locked out of school for 15minutes. In the drop off zone men open the car doors!

8:10 Sitting in slow moving traffic. Pete continues on to Miriam's school, then goes to his language class at University (which varies in quality.)

Sarah cleans up breakfast, washing on, Romans PTC, Spanish homework.

10:45 Lillian arrives for Sarah's Spanish lesson. Great teacher, lots to learn, still hard work.

12:45 Pete and Miriam return, Miriam bouncing.

1:15 Cook ham and cheese tortillas and pack them to take to school for lunch. We sit with Angie, then K and L do their homework before K, L and M stay for basketball training.

4:10 Home from basketball, hot and dirty, ready for a milo before finishing homework then horse riding or sweeping in the courtyard.

7:00 Dinner (a small serve for Sarah), family Bible reading and prayer from CMS diary. M loves to pray for the people her age.

7:45 Books, Bible and bed for L and M. Exodus reading with K.

8:50 Sarah out to Bible study - a group of mostly non-Christians studying "A purpose driven life". Ends with a large dinner at 10:20.

11:15 Glad to get to bed.

Have you seen the CMS 'Catch the vision' video?

It costs $245 per day to keep a family on the field. Are you able to give an extra gift to help CMS reach its target of $1.6 million by June 30?

Please Pray

- We are very appreciative of your prayers. When we feel lonely and frustrated we know that we are only upheld by our loving Father. We thank God for your partnership with us.
- Thanks for the contentment that we feel living here, despite some demoralising times.
- Pray for courage in language learning.
- Pray for the non-Christians who are looking for purpose in their life. Pray that they will see answers in Jesus.
- Thanks for a very encouraging time with Grahame and Patty Scarratt. Continue to pray for the many people around the world who are being transformed as they use the Moore Courses and learn to read the Bible well and know God intimately.
- Pray that as we develop friendships people will see Christ in us and will want to know the reason for the hope that we have.

Bible Verse

For if these qualities (virtue, knowledge, self-control, steadfastness, godliness, brotherly affection, love) are yours and are increasing, they keep you from being ineffective or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.
2 Peter 1:8
