

Spirituality of Motherhood

Wed 24 Mar (Catholic, 90M)

How can we experience God in the midst of the basic demands of life's growth, often coupled with a lack of sleep? This session is spiritually created for mothers, and will offer some perspective on experiencing the life presence of God in the 'ups of the storm'. R. Mann 2.00pm (20 live sat)

The Gift of Years

Wed 24 May (Catholic, 90M)

This is a seminar there in the second half of life. We discuss first half-of-life' culture, focusing on youth and often failing to see the gifts that many possess. One of the by-products of this view is that those of us who are in the second half of life also see ourselves that way and resist the aging process as much as possible. This seminar will be pertinent for those thinking about life over 60, retirement and beyond, for the able among you, and for those who work in aged care. R. Mann 2.00pm (20 live sat)

God in My Children

Wed 24 Jun (Catholic, 90M)

How can we discern the presence and action of God in our children? What is God teaching us through them? What are the gifts to us of children/nephews and teenage waywardness? God is indeed at work in and through our children. This day will offer some signposts in the difficult times, and also the joyful seasons as we journey with our children. R. Mann 2.00pm (20 live sat)

A Weekend Experience of Celtic Christian Spirituality

Fri 1st Sept - Sun 3rd Sept (Marian, 90M)

with Gael Connolly - Celtic Harper

Many of us would like to have deeper intimacy with God but struggle to know exactly HOW to enter into that Celtic Christian Spirituality for some time. Gael will take us in this regard. This weekend will provide opportunities to explore some of these riches in the context of living moments of harping, singing.

More information available from Nally Loughlin - Celtic Christianity reminds us that there is no separation between praying and living; praying and ordinary daily working life flow in and out of each other. nl@celticmusicgroup.com (20 live sat)

Eating Honey with God

Fri 26 Oct (Catholic, 90M)

When God sees images, they have immense power to transform us here, L, mind and soul - from the inside out! The Scriptures offer many rich images given to us by God and of God. Some are so well known that we've almost become numb to their power. This day will explore these images with time for solitude and silence. How you can drink deeply from living waters and 'Taste God in your heart, by faith'. Ann-Spice (20 live sat)
